

NEWSFLASH JULY

Global Emission Reduction Summit Doha

On June 22 and June 23, The Sniffers organized his first summit of 2010 in Qatar. The participants got more information about cost saving services and emission monitoring services of The Sniffers and participated in a golf initiation.

This summit was a great success, with more than 50 attendees, and resulted in a lot of added values for everybody:

- Networking with international companies
- Sharing experiences on LDAR
- Learning on LDAR and other cost reducing services
- Evaluating the upcoming new technologies
- Upgrading the golfing skills
